Since Charles Wright was not listed after 1831 in the Personal Property Tax Lists for Campbell County, he probably died in late 1831 or early 1832 and this listing would then be for his widow Rachel (Doss) Wright, but further research will be required to confirm this identification.

The Doss Connection, Volume 2, number 1, stated that Rachel (Doss) Wright was a daughter of James Doss, Sr., and Frances (Nix) Doss, was born in about 1771 at Pittsylvania County, Virginia, married Charles Wright on July 16, 1792, at Pittsylvania County, Virginia.

Since Rachel (Doss) Wright was a half-sister of Agness (Doss) Wright who married 1823 George Wright of Campbell County, a son of Robert Wright, Sr. (Campbell County) and of Ann (Doss) Wright, who married Robert Wright, Jr., believed to be a son of Robert Wright, Sr. (Campbell County), it is probable that Charles Wright was also a son of Robert Wright, Sr. (Campbell County). Charles Wright was also a witness to the marriage of Robert Wright and Ann Doss. However, further research will be required to confirm this identification.

From the evidence set forth above and additional evidence set forth below, the children of Charles Wright and Rachel (Doss) Wright were the following:

- 1) Probably Robert D. Wright, born on March 16, 1795, at Virginia,
- 2) Polly (Wright) Askew or Asher, born probably before 1798,
- 3) Elizabeth (Wright) Foster, born probably before 1805,
- 4) William P. Wright, born in about 1800 or 1802 at Virginia, and
- 5) Leonard H. Wright, born in about 1809 or 1810 at Campbell County, Virginia.

1. Probably 1873 Robert D. Wright Of Amherst County, His Wife Eleanor Or Ellen (Hood) Wright, And His Descendants

1873 Robert D. Wright of Amherst County was probably a son of Charles Wright and Rachel (Doss) Wright. (Robert¹, Charles²)

On November 7, 1844, Robert D. Wright filed in Amherst County, Virginia, Chancery Court, no file number, an accounting for $10.91 due to him from Alexander Henry and his children and obtained a writ of attachment to secure collection of the amount due:

"Amherst County, to wit:
To the constable of the said county.

Whereas Robert D. Wright hath this day complained before me Benjamin B. Taliaferro - a justice of the peace for the said county, that Alexander S Henry and his children is indebted to him in the sum of ten dollars and ninety one cents with interest thereon from the 16th day of october 1844 and that the Said Alexander S Henry and children is removing out of the Said county privately So that the ordinary process of law cannot be served upon him: These are therefore, in the name of the commonwelth, to require you to attach the estate of the Said Alexander S Henry and his children, or so much thereof as shall be of value sufficient to satisfy the said sum of ten dollars and ninety one cents, together with interest thereon from the 16th day of october 1844, and the costs; and such estate so attached in your hands to secure, or so to provide that the same may be liable to further proceedings thereon to be had at the next court to be held for this county; and that you then and there make returns how you have executed this warrant.

Given under my hand this 7th day of November 1844.

Benj. B Taliaferro (J.P)"

In order to obtain the writ, it was necessary to post a bond:

"Know all men by these presants, that we Robert D. Wright and C. B. Quisenberry - are held and firmly bound to Alexander S Henry and his children in the sum of twenty two dollars and eighty two cents of lawful money of virginia, to be paid to the said Alexander S Henry and his children their certain attorney, their executors, administrators or assigns; for the true payment whereof we bind ourselves jointly and severally, our joint and several heirs, executors, and administrators, firmly by these presants. Sealed with our seals, and dated this 7th day of November in the year of our Lord. 1844

The condition of the above obligation is such, that whereas the above bound Robert D Wright hath this day obtained from Benjamin B. Taliaferro a justice of the peace for the county of amherst, an attachment against the estate of the above named Alexander S Henry and his children for the sum of ten dollars and ninety one cents with interest and costs, returnable to the next county court; if therefore the Said Robert D Wright, shall satisfy and pay all costs which shall be awarded to the said Alexander S Henry and his children in case the said Robert D Wright shall be cast in the said suit, and also all damages which shall be recovered against the said Robert D Wright for his suing out this attachment then the above obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

And the said defendants in their own proper persons come and defend the wrong and injury when &c. and pray Judgment of the said attachment of the said Wright, because they say - that they the said defendants, on the day on which the said attachment was issued, or at any time before or since, were not removing out of the said County privately, so that the ordinary process of law could not be served upon them. This record also indicates that Robert Wright was born in about 1795, that he served in Captain Leigh's Company, and that he resided on March 10, 1855, in Amherst County, Virginia.

Included in Pension File BLW 11558 for Robert D. Wright was a copy of a pension claim dated July 27, 1855, by Mary (O'Neal) Wright, aged sixty odd years, a resident of King William County and the widow of Robert Wright, who was also a private in Captain Leigh's Company and married on December 1, 1820, at King William County, and that Robert Wright died on December 6, 1825. This second Robert Wright claim apparently caused some confusion and delay in the issuance of the bounty land warrant to Robert D. Wright.

On about January 7, 1889, at Amherst County, Virginia, Chancery Court File 71, Fielding H. Wright, a son of Robert D. Wright, filed suit for his intestate share of that land, alleging that title had been mistakenly conveyed by the Isbells to the widow, that Ellen (____) Wright died in 1883, and that the children of Robert D. Wright were Fielding H. Wright, Daniel S. Wright, Robert D. Wright, Mary Ann Casey, and Cynthia A. Linthicum:

"To The Hon. Jno. D. Horsley judge of the Circuit Court of Amherst County.

Your orator F. H. Wright, humbly complaining, sheweth unto the Court, that your orator's father, Robert D. Wright, sometime previous to the year 1879, purchased of one Robt. Isbell and Angelina T. his wife, a tract of land in Amherst County and paid the purchase price agreed on for said land, but that no deed was executed to him, that after the death of your orator's said father, the said Robt D. Wright, to wit: on the 23d day of October in the year 1879, the said Robt. Isbell and Angelina T. his wife did, under a mistaken impression, execute a deed to said land to Ellen Wright the widow of said Robert D. Wright and the mother of your orator, instead of executing the same, as it was proper and legal that it should be executed, to your orator and the other heirs at law of said Robert D. Wright who died intestate and leaving as his heirs at law your orator, Danl S. Wright, Robert D. Wright, Mary Ann Wright who is now Mary Ann Casey and Cynthia A. Wright who is now Cynthia A. Linthicum. A teste copy of which said deed is herewith filed as part of this Bill marked A. Your orator farther shows that sometime in the year 1883 Your orators mother, the said Ellen Wright departed this life intestate and in possession of the tract of land aforesaid wh. contains about 27 acres, leaving your orator and Danl. S. Wright and Robt. D. Wright and Mary Ann Casey and Cynthia A. Linthicum, his only children and heirs at law. Your orator farther states that the said real estate is, as he beleives, not susuptable of partition in Kind amongst the parties thereto entitled and that the interests of all will be best subversed by a sale of said real estate and a division of the proceeds. In tender consideration whereof your orator prays that the said Danl. S. Wright, Robt. D. Wright, Mary Ann Casey & ____ Casey her husband who is a foreign defendant, and Cynthia A. Linthicum and N. Linthicum her husband may be made parties defendant to this bill and required upon their oaths to answer the same, that a notice of publication be issued against said foreign defendant and that all proper process issue; and that the sum of $30 be decreed to his counsel, as a fee for his services in this case, out of the general funds that the said real estate be sold and the proceeds divided between the several parties thereto entitled and that all such other, farther and general relief may be afforded your orator as the nature of his case may require or to equity shall seem much, And your orator will ever pray etc.

I Ro. A. Pendleton, clerk of the circuit court of Amherst County do certify that the within order was duly posted as the law directs

On April 11, 1889, at Amherst County, Virginia, Chancery Court File 71, Cynthia A. (Wright) Linthicum and her husband N. A. Linthicum filed their answer to the complaint and alleged that Ellen (____) Wright had conveyed two acres to them during her lifetime and they had improved the land and claimed no interest in the remainder:

"In the Circuit Court for
The County of Amherst
Settig in Chancery

The answer of N. A. Linthicum and Cynthia A. his wife to a bill in equity exhibited against them and others in the said Court by F. H Wright

These respondents for answer to the said bill or to so much thereof as they are advised it is material for them to make answer, answering say.

It is true that this female respondent is the daughter of Ro. D. Wright and that he died intestate, that they do not know whether or not the deed mentioned in the complainants bill should or should not have been made to Ro D Wright instead of being made as it appears to have been made and upon all of these questions they call for proof

As to the interests of these defendants in the land in question these respondents say that some years ago the grantee in the deed exhibited with complainants bill assuming to be owoner of the lands involved in this suit and claiming the right to dispose of the same and these respondents believing that she had such right & power never having seen a deed to said property and no such deed having been recorded at that time, did give a small lot of said land to these respondents near what is known as Wrights Shop supposed to contain about two acres of ground upon which, by their joint labor and enterprise they have put valuable improvements to the amount of at least five hundred dollars in good faith, they believing the same to belong to them. These respondents claim this lot as theirs and claim no interest in the lands in question.

And having fully answered they pray to be hence dismissed with their costs by them about their defense in this behalf expended.

Virginia, Amherst Cty to wit.

N. A. Linthicum made oath to the truth of the foregoing answer this 11th April 1889 in my county & state aforesaid before the B. B. Harrison a Notary public. Witness my hand this 11th April 1889.

vs) Decree - Oct. T. 1890.
Wright)

This cause came on this day to be again heard upon the papers formerly read & upon a deed from F. H. Wright & wife to E. L. Dameron, and it appearing to the Court from the said deed that the said F. H. Wright, the purchasers of the land heretofore sold in this cause, has conveyed all of his interest in said land to one E. L. Dameron, the Court doth adjudge order and decree that Jno. L. Lee, who is hereby appointed a commissioner for the purpose, upon the payment of the balance of the purchase money to him as receiver, do execute to said E. L.

Dameron, at the expense of the fund in this cause, a special warranty deed to said land."

In April 1891 at Amherst County, Virginia, Chancery Court File 71, the commissioner reported that Mary Ann Casey refused to yield possession of the land to

E. L. Dameron:

"Wright vs. Wright
Commrs. Report

The undersigned Commr. heretofore appointed in this cause respectfully submits the following report.

By a decree, entered in this cause at the Oct. term of 1890 of this court, E. L. Dameron was constituted a substitute purchaser of the land previously sold in this suit to one F. H. Wright, and both of these gentlemen having fully complied with the terms of sale etc. the said E. L. Dameron is now and has for some time been entitled to the possession of the said land and its appurtenances, yet notwithstanding these facts one Mary Ann Casey who is a party to this suit and in possession of a portion of the said land, refuses to yield the possession of said land to the said Dameron although often requested so to do.

Your Commr, further shows to the Court that this was a suit for sale for partition of the land in question, that the said Mary Ann Casey was a party to the suit, that she filed no answer and quietly submitted to a sale of the land which she now withholds from the purchaser.

Your Commr. asks that the said E. L. Dameron be placed in possession of the said land at once."

In April 1891 in Amherst County, Virginia, Chancery Court File 71, the Court ordered that the sheriff eject Mary Ann Casey from the premises:

"Wright vs. Wright
Order Apl.T.91

This cause came on this day to be again heard on the papers formerly read and upon the report of Commr. Jno. L. Lee and was argued by counsel.

And it appearing to the Court from the said report that one Mary Ann Casey, a party to this suit, is unlawfully withholding from E. L. Dameron the purchaser of the land heretofore sold in this cause, a portion of the said land, the Court doth adjudge, order and decree that the said Mary Ann Casey do at once render unto the said Dameron the possession of the said land, and should she fail so to do within thirty days from the rising of this court, it is ordered by the court that the Sheriff do eject her from the premises and place the said Dameron in possession of the same."

On October 14, 1891, in Amherst County, Virginia, Chancery Court File 71, Mary Ann Casey filed her answer in the suit alleging there was no error in the original deed to her mother and that she was given two acres as part of that transaction:

"In the Circuit Court for
Amherst County

Oct Term 1891

The separate answer of Mary Ann Casey to a bill in chancery exhibited against her and others in the said Court by her brother one F. H. Wright

This respondent for answer to the said bill says:

It is true that she is daughter of Ro. D. Wright and one of his heirs at law.

It is true that her father died intestate.

It is also true that prior to the death of her father, he purchased and paid for a certain tract of land containing some sixty nine acres from one Robt. Isbell near what is known as Wright's shop in the said County of Amherst.

It is also true that the said father of this respondent died before a deed of conveyance was made to him of said property But this respondent denies that any deed made by the said Isbell and wife to this respondents mother who was also mother of the complainant was made by any mistake but on the contrary thereof complainant procured the said deed to be made as it was made to the said mother without a word of consultation with this respondent, and so far as she is advised, without consulting any other member of the family by the which deed only about 27.- acres of land was conveyed to respondent's mother instead of 69 acres which had been purchased by her father.

This respondent denies that the land conveyed should be sold for division and She shows that after the complainant procured the said deed to be made as it was made His Mother with his approval without deed but by metes and bounds gave this respondent a lot of said land containg about two acres of land which respondent agreed to take in satisfaction of her interest in the said tract of land and thereupon went about to improve the same by erecting building and in other ways supposing that she would never be disturbed. This Respondent says that when this suit was brought she was assured by the plaintiff that if she would not appear to or resist his suit he would see to it that her lot and the improvements thereon would be set off and allowed to her and confiding in her brother that he only wanted to sell so much of the said land as was outside of her lot for division did not appear to, or defend said suit. But the said complainant having deceived her and defrauded her she prays that she may now be permitted to file her answer to this bill and to defend the same

And having fully answered she prays to be hence dismissed with her costs

Sworn to in Open Court by Mary Ann Casey this the 14th day of Oct 1891

In October 1893 in Amherst County, Virginia, Chancery Court File 71, the court ordered that the two acres claimed by Cynthia A. Linthicum be allotted to her:

"F. H. Wright

v

Ord Octo Term 1893

Wright & al

This cause came on this day to be again heard on the papers formerly read and was argued by counsel: on consideration whereof and by consent of parties the Court doth adjudge order and decree that Cynthia A. Linthicum the wife of N A Linthicum is entitled to the two acres of ground together with improvements thereon on which the said Linthicum at present resides the same being set out in the answer filed in this cause: and the Court doth appoint A. H. Burroughs, special Comr and as such direct him to convey to the said Cynthia A. Linthicum by proper deed said two acres of land together with all improvements thereon. The same to be in full of her distributive share: The cost of executing the said deed being at the cost of the said Cynthia A Linthicum.

A Copy Teste

E. B. McGinnis, Clerk"

The court records do not indicate any resolution of the claim to two acres of land by mary Ann Casey.

The complaint in the case of Fielding H. Wright vs. Wright et al in Amherst County, Virginia, Chancery Court also listed Fielding H. Wright as a son of Robert D. Wright:

". . . . Your orator F. H. Wright, humbly complaining, sheweth unto the Court, that your orator's father, Robert D. Wright,"

The 1850 Census for Amherst County, Virginia, listed Fielding Wright in the Jesse Richeson household on December 5, 1850, and his age as 27, a blacksmith, and born in Virginia, indicating a date of birth in about 1823.

On or about June 20, 1851, Fielding H. Wright filed suit against Edward I. Davis for an accounting of the profits of a blacksmith partnership they had entered into:

"To The Hon Lucas P. Thompson Judge of the Circuit Court of the County of Amherst

The Bill of complaint of Fielding H. Wright respectfully represents that on the __ day of _____ 18__ This complainant and a certain Edward I. Davis, both residents of the county of Amherst entered into and formed a copartnership in the Blacksmithing business to be carried on near the tavern House of the said Davis near the Buffalo Springs in the county of Amherst _____ by the terms of said partnership your orator who is himself a Blacksmith was to furnish and bring into the concern his own skill and labor. The said Davis was to furnish and provide a striker shop and board for your orator and the other expences of the co-partnership were to be equally divided between the parties said agreement was verbal and never reduced to writing, but witnesses were present when it was made your orator and the said Davis accordingly commenced and for a considerable time continued the said business on the terms and conditions aforesaid and eventually dissolved having as your orator alleges and charges made considerable profit from their business

Your orator expressly avers and alleges that he has never received any thing from said concern, that the books, papers and accounts all passed into and are now in the possession of said Davis who has collected or otherwise adjusted or lost by his negligence all the debts due to said concern and although your orator has made frequent application to him for a settlement of their partnership transactions and the payment of his portion of the profits, has refused and declined to do so, and retains in his possession the whole thereof and his gross injustice and ____ is ____ to your orator. Your orator has always sought and demanded without avail a friendly adjustment of their differences without a resort(?) to suit. But the said Davis has pertinaciously declined all propositions and holding on to the whole profits of the copartnership left him no other alternatives

Your orator therefore prays that inasmuch as he is without remedy at Law and only relievable in Equity the said Edward I Davis may be made a defendant to this Bill and compelled to answer all and singular its allegations, on oath that he may be required to say what sums of money he has received of the debtors of said concern and how he has ____ them - that he may be compelled to produce and exhibit the Books of said concern and thus enable a commissioner of this court to settle and adjust the same - that your Honor will decree a settlement of the accounts of said partnership and, if upon such settlement a balance should be shown to be due your orator, that you will decree in his favor for the amount against said Davis and grant all such other and further and and relief as to Equity may seem fit and the nature of the case may require

The court entered its order directing an accounting before a commissioner:

"Wright

This cause, in which the Bill had been taken for confessed at rules in the office, came on this day to be heard on the Bill and was argued by Counsel, on consideration whereof the court doth order that it be referred to one of the commissioners of this court to take an account of the Partnership transactions of the Plaintiff and defendant from the commencement of said Partnership to its dissolution and in order to enable him to do so each party is required to deliver to the said commissioner all Books, papers, and accounts, in his possession, belonging to, or connected with the transactions, of said copartnership and leave is given to either party to examine the other, upon oath, before the said commissioner, touching the matters involved in said settlement which account the said commissioner is dirreted to take state and settle and make report thereof to the court with any matter, specially stated, deemed pertinent by himself or required by the parties to be so stated"

In August 1854 the case was dismissed with no indication of whether a satisfactory accounting had been rendered.

The presence of Fielding Hobson Wright in the 1880 Census for Amherst County, Virginia, and the absence of children in that household and the listing of Sara as a widow in the 1900 Census and her physical proximity in Amherst County to other descendants of Charles Wright suggest that this listing was probably Sarah D. (Thomas) Wright, but further research will be required to confirm this identification.

The Charlottesville, Lee Lynchburg and Johnson's Bedford Artillery stated that Sterling C. Wright enlisted on October 6, 1863, as a private in the Lee Battery of Light Artillery, was issued clothes on December 12, 1863, and December 24, 1863, was subject of a general court martial and sentenced to six months hard labor at Richmond, escaped from the Provost Guard on the night of October 19, 1864, was at large on December 31, 1864, and was paroled on April 15, 1865, at Lynchburg.

On July 30, 1870, The Lynchburg Daily News printed an obituary for Cinderella M. Wright which listed her parents as Sterling C. Wright and Lucy A. Wright:
"Died.

On the 27th of July, 1870, Cinderella M. Wright aged 5 years, daughter of Sterling C. and Lucy A. Wright of Campbell County, Va.
...."

The 1870 Census for Campbell County, Virginia, listed Sterling C. Wright with the following household on August 17, 1870:

This record indicates that Sterling Charles Wright was born in about 1825 and that Lucy Ann (____) Wright was born in about 1831. The listing of Mary S. Wright is probably for Cinderella M. Wright, who had died on July 27, three weeks before. Her listing out of age order probably indicates that the census taker was listing those present in the household on June 1, rather than those present in the household on August 17.

The birth record of J. R. Wright, son of Sterling Wright and Lucy A. Wright, was dated on February 1, 1874, at Campbell County, Virginia:

"Name of Child:	J. R. Wright
Date of Birth:	February 1, 1874

Father's Occupation:	Farmer
Father's Residence:	Campbell
Mother's Name:	Lucy A Wright

Informant:	L. A. Wright

The death record of S. R. Wright, son of S and L Wright, was dated on October 17, 1874, at Campbell County, Virginia:

"Place of Death:	Campbell County, Virginia

Name of Deceased:	S. R. Wright

Name of Informant:	L. Wright
Relation of Informant:	Mother
Commissioner of the Revenue:	T. D. Evans
Date Record Filed:	December 1875"

This age listed for S. R. Wright of 9 months makes clear that this is the same person as the J. R. Wright of the birth record set forth above.

The 1880 Census for Campbell County, Virginia, listed Sterling Wright with the following household on June 7, 1880:

Name	Color	Sex	Age	Month of Birth	Relationship

This record indicates that Sterling Charles Wright was born in about 1824 and that Lucy Ann (____) Wright was born in about 1833.

The death record of Stepney C. Wright, son of Robert and Ellen Wright, was dated on May 9, 1884, at Campbell County, Virginia:

"Place of Death:	Campbell County, Virginia
Line Number:	14
Name of Deceased:	Stepney C. Wright
Race:	White
Sex:	Male
Age:	56
Date of Death:	May 9, 1884
Place:	Campbell

Birthplace of Deceased:	Campbell
Occupation:	Farmer

Consort of:	Unmarried
Name of Informant:	D. E. Ervin
Relation of Informant:	Physician
Commissioner of the Revenue:	R. M. Cocke
Date Record Filed:	November 1884"

This was probably the death record for Sterling Charles Wright, despite the misspelling of the first name and his listing as unmarried. The listing of his parents as Robert and Ellen Wright, his middle initial as C, and his age as 56 are all consistent with Sterling Charles Wright and the informant apparently did not know him well and apparently provided partially incorrect information for the death record.

From the evidence set forth above and additional evidence set forth below, the children of 1884 Sterling Charles Wright of Campbell County and Lucy Ann (____) Wright were the following:

- 1) Seraphinia E. (Wright) Holler, born in about 1856 or 1857 at Amherst County, Virginia,
- 2) Edward S. Wright, born in about 1859 at Virginia,
- 3) Cinderella M. or Mary S. Wright, born in about 1865 at Virginia,

Seraphinia E. (Wright) Holler was a daughter of 1884 Sterling Charles Wright of Campbell County and Lucy ~~A~~ (____) Wright. (Robert¹, Charles², 1873 Robert D.³, 1884 Sterling Charles⁴)

The 1870 Census for Campbell County, Virginia, listed Seraphin E. Wright in the Sterling C. Wright household on August 17, 1870, and her age as 13 and born in Virginia, indicating a date of birth in about 1857.

The 1880 Census for Campbell County, Virginia, listed Serophenia Wright in the Sterling Wright household on June 7, 1880, and her age as 23 and born in Virginia, indicating a date of birth in about 1857.

The marriage record of Seraphinia E. Wright and Jacob Bowers Holler was dated July 3, 1888, at Lynchburg, Virginia, and listed the following information for the parties:

Cinderella M. or Mary S. Wright was a daughter of 1884 Sterling Charles Wright of Campbell County and Lucy Ann (____) Wright. (Robert¹, Charles², 1873 Robert D.³, 1884 Sterling Charles⁴)

On July 30, 1870, The Lynchburg Daily News printed the following obituary for Cinderella M. Wright:

"Died.

On the 27th of July, 1870, Cinderella M. Wright aged 5 years, daughter of Sterling C. and Lucy A. Wright of Campbell County, Va.

Weep not for me my parents dear,
I am not dead but sleep here,
My time was short, by this you see,
Prepare yourself to follow me."

The 1870 Census for Campbell County, Virginia, listed Mary S. Wright in the Sterling C. Wright household on August 17, 1870, and her age as 5 and born in Virginia, indicating a date of birth in about 1865. The listing of Mary S. Wright is probably for Cinderella M. Wright, who had died on July 27, three weeks before. Her listing out of age order probably indicates that the census taker was listing those present in the household on June 1, rather than those present in the household on August 17.

iv. Henrietta Lucy (Wright) Harris, Her Husband Theatric
Or Theodoric Harris, And Her Descendants

Henrietta Lucy (Wright) Harris was a daughter of 1884 Sterling Charles Wright of Campbell County and Lucy Ann (____) Wright. (Robert¹, Charles², 1873 Robert D.³, 1884 Sterling Charles⁴)

The listing of Charles S. Wright as the father of Henrietta is clearly a variation of the name of Sterling Charles Wright from the 1870 Census and the listing of Lucy Ann as the mother confirms the identification of Sterling Charles Wright and Lucy Ann (____) Wright as the parents of Henrietta Lucy Wright.

In her email dated February 10, 2000, Lynda Harris stated that Henrietta Lucy Wright was a daughter of Sterling Charles Wright and Lucy Ann (____) Wright, was born in 1874 at Campbell County, Virginia, and married Theotric or Theodoric Harris on March 3, 1897, at Campbell County, Virginia, that Theotric or Theodoric Harris was born in 1872 at Charlotte County, Virginia, was a weaver in the cotton mills in Lynchburg, Virginia, and then a street car motor man, married second Ada Lee Godsey, and separated after three years from Ada Lee (Godsey) Harris, and that Henrietta Lucy (Wright) Harris and Theotric or Theodoric Harris had the following children:

- 1) Sarah Harris, born before 1900,
- 2) Mary Harris, born before 1900,
- 3) _____ Harris, a daughter, and
- 4) Theodore Harris, Jr., born on December 7, 1905, at Lynchburg, Virginia.

The complaint of Wright v. Wright in Amherst County, Virginia, Chancery Court, no file number, also identified Daniel S. Wright as a son of Robert D. Wright:

". . . . said Robert D. Wright who died intestate and leaving as his heirs at law your orator, Danl S. Wright, Robert D. Wright, Mary Ann Wright who is now Mary Ann Casey and Cynthia A. Wright who is now Cynthia A. Linthicum"

This was probably the household of David Staples Wright. The age of David Wright is consistent with his age in his marriage record. The age of Catherine Wright is consistent with the age of Susan (Layne) Wright in their marriage record. And the ages of the children are consistent with a marriage in 1865. The second child would be named after the wife's father and the third child would be named after the husband's father. As will be set forth below, the death records from the Duiguid Funeral Home state that the parents of Edward Jackson Wright were David Tobe Wright and Susan Layne. The uncertainty is caused by the wife's name as Catherine rather than Susan, but her name was probably Susan Catherine (Layne) Wright and, as will be set forth below, she apparently went by both names.

The birth record of Robert Wright, son of Toby and Susan Wright, was dated in April 1872 at Nelson County, Virginia:

"Name of Child:	Robt Wright
Date of Birth:	April 1872
Color:	White
Sex:	Male
Born:	Alive
Place of Birth:	Nelson County
Father's Name:	Toby Wright
Father's Occupation:	Lock keeper
Father's Residence:	Nelson County
Mother's Name:	Susan Wright
How many:	1
Informant:	Toby Wright
Relationship:	Father"

This was probably the birth record for Robert D. Wright listed in the 1870 Census in the David Wright household. The date of the birth record was probably misrecorded as 1872, rather than 1870. As will be set forth below, the Duiguid Funeral Home Records listed the father of Edward Jackson Wright as David Tobe Wright and the mother as Susan Layne. Toby was apparently a nickname for David Staples Wright.

The birth record of Martha J. Wright, daughter of David and Susan Wright, was dated on September 6, 1873, at Nelson County, Virginia:

"Name of Child:	Martha J Wright
Date of Birth:	September 6, 1873
Color:	White
Sex:	Female
Born:	Alive
Place of Birth:	Nelson
Father's Name:	David Wright
Father's Occupation:	Lock Keeper
Father's Residence:	Nelson
Mother's Name:	Susan Wright
How many:	1
Deformity:	None
Informant:	David Wright
Relationship:	Father"

This child would have been named for Susan Catherine (Layne) Wright's mother and the occupation of David Wright as lock keeper is consistent with the birth record for Robert Wright and the 1870 Census record for David Wright.

The death record of Martha N. Wright, daughter of David and Susan Wright, was dated on February 5, 1873, at Nelson County, Virginia:

"Name of Deceased:	Martha N Wright
Date of Death:	February 5, 1873
Color:	White
Sex:	Female
Place:	Nelson County
Cause:	Strangulation
Age:	5 mos 1 day
Parents:	David & Susan Wright
Born:	Nelson Co Va
Informant:	David Wright
Relationship:	Father"

The names of the parents and the age at death of 5 months make clear that this Martha N. Wright was the same person as Martha J. Wright of the birth record. Since the year of Robert Wright's birth date was incorrectly listed, it seems likely that the year of Martha J. Wright's birth date was also incorrectly listed and that Robert Wright was born in 1870 and Martha J. Wright was born in September 1872 and then this death record would correctly list her death 5 months later in February 1873.

The birth record of Violetta Wright, daughter of David and Catharine E. Wright, was dated on November 12, 1878, at Nelson County, Virginia:

"Name of Child:	Violetta Wright
Date of Birth:	November 12, 1878
Color:	White
Sex:	Female
Born:	Alive
Place of Birth:	Nelson County
Father's Name:	David Wright
Father's Occupation:	Farmer
Father's Residence:	Nelson Co.
Mother's Name:	Catharine E. Wright
How many:	1
Deformity:	None
Informant:	Parent"

The 1880 Census for Nelson County, Virginia, listed David Wright with the following household on June 4 or 5, 1880:

Name	Color	Sex	Age	Month of Birth	Relationship

This record indicates that David Staples Wright was born in about 1831 and that Susan Catherine (Layne) Wright was born in about 1851. However, since Susan Catherine (Layne) Wright was listed as age 25 in the 1870 Census, this record seems clearly in error. The occupation of David Wright of lock keeper is further confirmation that the same family is involved in all these records, whether David is known as Toby or David and whether his wife is known as Susan or Catherine.

The birth record of ____ Wright, son of David S. Wright and Susan Wright, was dated on March 10, 1881, at Nelson County, Virginia:

"Name of Child:	Not named Wright
Date of Birth:	March 10, 1881
Color:	White
Sex:	Male
Born:	Alive
Place of Birth:	Nelson Co Va
Father's Name:	David S. Wright
Father's Occupation:	Lock Keeper
Father's Residence:	Nelson Co Va
Mother's Name:	Susan Wright
How many:	1
Informant:	Father"

The listing of David S. Wright as lock keeper again confirms that the same family was involved in all of these Nelson County records, notwithstanding alternative names used.

The death record of ____ Wright, son of David S. and Susan Wright, was dated on June 1, 1881, at Nelson County, Virginia:

"Name of Deceased:	_____ Wright
Date of Death:	June 1, 1881
Color:	White

Cause:	Consumption
Age:	2 mos 8 days
Parents:	David & Susan Wright
Born:	Nelson

Informant:	David S Wright

The death record of Susan Wright, wife of David S. Wright, was dated on September 20, 1881, at Nelson County, Virginia:

"Name of Deceased:	Susan Wright
Date of Death:	September 20, 1881
Color:	White
Sex:	Female
Place:	Nelson Co Va
Cause:	Consumption
Age:	34 yrs 8 mos 10 days
Parents:	Saml & Martha Layne
Born:	Appomattox
Consort of:	Married
Informant:	David S. Wright
Relationship:	Husband"

The marriage record of Samuel H. Wright and Annie L. Cooper dated February 26, 1891, at Amherst County, Virginia, listed his parents as Davis S. and Catherine E. Wright and his age as 22 and born in Nelson County, Virginia, indicating a date of birth in about 1869.

The death record of Tobe Wright was dated on June 19, 1894, at Amherst County, Virginia:

"Place of Death:	Amherst County, Virginia
Line Number:	71
Name of Deceased:	Tobe Wright
Race:	White
Sex:	Male

Date of Death:	June 19, 1894

The nickname Tobe is consistent with the nickname Toby from the 1872 birth record for Robert Wright and the Duiguid Funeral Home record set forth below and indicates that this record is for David Staples Wright.

In her email dated October 8, 2001, Dale Holdren stated that the Duiguid Funeral Home Records for Edward Jackson Wright in 1930 listed his parents as David Tobe Wright and and Susan Lane, with the informant as Edward Jackson Wright's son C. F. Wright. The Tobe would be consistent with the nickname Toby from the 1872 birth record for Robert Wright and the listing of Susan Lane as the mother is consistent with the 1870 and 1880 Census records if Susan (Lane) Wright was also known as Catherine Wright, or more fully Susan Catherine (Lane) Wright. This funeral home record appears to confirm the identity of Catherine Wright as the same person as Susan (Layne or Lane) Wright.

In her email dated October 19, 2001, Dale Holdren stated that the marriage record of Edward J. Wright and Annie Akers dated November 24, 1890, at Pulaski County, Virginia, listed his father as D. S. Wright, which is further confirmation of the identification of David Staples Wright as Tobe or Tobey Wright.

From the evidence set forth above and additional evidence set forth below, the children of 1894 David Staples "Toby" Wright of Amherst County and Susan Catherine E. (Layne) Wright were the following:

- 1) Edward Jackson Wright, born in about 1867 or 1868 at Nelson County, Virginia,
- 2) Samuel H. Wright, born in August 1867 or in about 1868 or 1869 at Nelson County, Virginia,

3) Robert D. Wright, born in about April or June 1870 or in about 1872 at Nelson County, Virginia,

4) Martha J. Wright, born on September 6, 1872, or in 1873 at Nelson County, Virginia,

5) Carrington Floyd "Doc" Wright, born on July 22, 1876, at Nelson County, Virginia,

6) Violetta Wright, born on November 12, 1878, at Nelson County, Virginia, and

7) _____ Wright, born on March 10, 1881, at Nelson County, Virginia.

- i. 1930 Edward Jackson Wright Of Appomattox County, His Wife Nannie Ellen (Akers) Wright, And His Descendants

1930 Edward Jackson Wright of Appomattox County was a son of 1894 David Staples Wright of Amherst County and Susan Catherine E. (Layne) Wright. (Robert, Sr.¹, Charles², 1873 Robert D.³, 1894 David Staples⁴)

The 1870 Census for Nelson County, Virginia, listed Edward J. Wright in the David Wright household on August 5, 1870, and his age as 3 and born in Virginia, indicating a date of birth in about 1867.

The 1880 Census for Nelson County, Virginia, listed Edward Wright in the David Wright household on June 4, 1880, and his age as 13 and born in Virginia, indicating a date of birth in about 1867.

The marriage record of Edward J. Wright and Annie Akers was dated on November 24, 1890, at Pulaski County, Virginia, and listed the following information for the parties:

The presence of his sister Violet V. Wright in the household confirms the identity of this Edward J. Wright as the Edward J. Wright from the David and Catherine households in the 1870 and 1880 Nelson County Censuses.

In her emails dated September 23, 2001, and November 6, 2001, Dale Holdren stated that Edward "Fattie" Jackson Wright was a son of David "Tobe or Toby" Staples Wrigth and Susan Catherine (Layne or Lane) Wright, was born on September 24, 1867, at New Market, Amherst County, Virginia, or Nelson County, Virginia, resided on November 24, 1890, at Pulaski County, Virginia, was a fireman, married Nannie Ellen Akers on November 24, 1890, at New River, Pulaski County, Virginia, died on February 24, 1930, at Appomattox County, Virginia, and was buried at Lynchburg, Virginia, that Nannie Ellen (Akers) Wright was born on November 11, 1870, at Montgomery County, Virginia, died on December 8, 1945, at Evergreen, Appomattox County, Virginia, and was buried at Lynchburg, Virginia, and that Edward Jackson Wright and Nannie Ellen (Akers) Wright had the following children:

- 1) John W. Wright, born on November 9, 1886, at Madison Heights, Amherst County, Virginia,
- 2) William H. Wright, born in March 1890,

ii. Samuel H. Wright, His Wife Annie L. (Cooper) Wright, And His Descendants

Samuel H. Wright was a son of 1894 David Staples Wright of Amherst County and Susan Catherine E. (Layne) Wright. (Robert, Sr.¹, Charles², 1873 Robert D.³, 1894 David Staples⁴)

The 1870 Census for Nelson County, Virginia, listed Samuell Wright in the David Wright household on August 5, 1870, and his age as 2 and born in Virginia, indicating a date of birth in about 1868.

The 1880 Census for Nelson County, Virginia, listed Saml Wright in the David Wright household on June 4, 1880, and his age as 11 and born in Virginia, indicating a date of birth in about 1869.

The marriage record of Samuel H. Wright, son of Davis S. and Catherine E. Wright, and Annie L. Cooper was dated on February 26, 1891, at Amherst County, Virginia:

iii. Robert D. Wright

Robert D. Wright was a son of 1894 David Staples Wright of Amherst County and Susan Catherine E. (Layne) Wright. (Robert, Sr.¹, Charles², 1873 Robert D.³, 1894 David Staples⁴)

The 1870 Census for Nelson County, Virginia, listed Robert D. Wright in the David Wright household on August 5, 1870, and his age as 2/12 and born in Virginia, indicating a date of birth in about 18 June 1870.

The birth record of Robert Wright, son of Toby and Susan Wright, was dated in April 1872 at Nelson County, Virginia:

"Name of Child:	Robt Wright
Date of Birth:	April 1872
Color:	White
Sex:	Male
Born:	Alive
Place of Birth:	Nelson County
Father's Name:	Toby Wright
Father's Occupation:	Lock keeper
Father's Residence:	Nelson County
Mother's Name:	Susan Wright
How many:	1
Informant:	Toby Wright
Relationship:	Father"

This was probably the birth record for Robert D. Wright listed in the 1870 Census in the David Wright household. The date of the birth record was probably misrecorded as 1872, rather than 1870. As will be set forth below, the Duiguid Funeral Home Records listed the father of Edward Jackson Wright as David Tobe Wright and the mother as Susan Layne. Toby was apparently a nickname for David Staples Wright.

The 1880 Census for Nelson County, Virginia, listed Robert Wright in the David Wright household on June 4, 1880, and his age as 10 and born in Virginia, indicating a date of birth in about 1870.

iv. Martha J. Or N. Wright

Martha J. or N. Wright was a daughter of 1894 David Staples Wright of Amherst County and Susan Catherine E. (Layne) Wright. (Robert, Sr.¹, Charles², 1873 Robert D.³, 1894 David Staples⁴)

The birth record of Martha J. Wright, daughter of David and Susan Wright, was dated on September 6, 1873, at Nelson County, Virginia:

"Name of Child:	Martha J Wright
Date of Birth:	September 6, 1873
Color:	White

Sex:	Female
Born:	Alive
Place of Birth:	Nelson
Father's Name:	David Wright
Father's Occupation:	Lock Keeper
Father's Residence:	Nelson
Mother's Name:	Susan Wright
How many:	1
Deformity:	None
Informant:	David Wright
Relationship:	Father"

This child would have been named for Susan Catherine (Lane) Wright's mother.

The death record of Martha N. Wright, daughter of David and Susan Wright, was dated on February 5, 1873, at Nelson County, Virginia:

"Name of Deceased:	Martha N Wright
Date of Death:	February 5, 1873
Color:	White
Sex:	Female
Place:	Nelson County
Cause:	Strangulation
Age:	5 mos 1 day
Parents:	David & Susan Wright
Born:	Nelson Co Va
Informant:	David Wright
Relationship:	Father"

The names of the parents and the age at death of 5 months make clear that this Martha N. Wright was the same person as Martha J. Wright of the birth record. Since the year of her brother Robert Wright's birth date was incorrectly listed, it seems likely that the year of Martha J. Wright's birth date was also incorrectly listed and that Robert Wright was born in 1870 and Martha J. Wright was born in September 1872 and then this death record would correctly list her death 5 months later in February 1873.

v. 1952 Carrington Floyd "Doc" Wright Of Newport News, His Wives Margaret Louise (Hughes) Wright And Virginia "Virgie" Dare (Sledge) Wright, And His Descendants

1952 Carrington Floyd "Doc" Wright was a son of 1894 David Staples Wright of Amherst County and Susan Catherine E. (Layne) Wright. (Robert, Sr.¹, Charles², 1873 Robert D.³, 1894 David Staples⁴)

In her email dated October 19, 2001, Dale Holdren stated that Carrington Floyd "Doc" Wright was a son of David Staples Wright and Susan Catherine E. - 2) Margerette "Boody" Gwendolyn Wright.

vi. Violetta Or Violet V. Wright

Violetta or Violet V. Wright was a daughter of 1894 David Staples Wright of Amherst County and Susan Catherine E. (Layne) Wright. (Robert, Sr.¹, Charles², 1873 Robert D.³, 1894 David Staples⁴)

The birth record of Violetta Wright, daughter of David and Catharine E. Wright, was dated on November 12, 1878, at Nelson County, Virginia:

Father's Name:	David Wright
Father's Occupation:	Farmer
Father's Residence:	Nelson Co.
Mother's Name:	Catharine E. Wright
How many:	1
Deformity:	None
Informant:	Parent"

The 1880 Census for Nelson County, Virginia, listed Violet Wright in the David Wright household and her age as 1 and born in Virginia, indicating a date of birth in about 1879.

The 1900 Census for Amherst County, Virginia, listed Violet V. Wright in the Edward J. Wright household, her relationship as sister and her birth in January 1878 at Virginia.

vii. Wright

This record indicates that Mary Ann (Wright) Casey was born in about 1833 and that Edward H. Casey was born in about 1829.

The 1870 Census for Amherst County, Virginia, listed Mary Kersey in the Robert D. C. Wright household on June 30, 1870, and her age as 34 and born in Virginia, indicating a date of birth in about 1836, and listed with her were Wesley Kersey, age 14, and Eliza J. Kersey, age 16.

The 1880 Census for Amherst County, Virginia, listed Mary Cary in the Ellen Wright household on June 3, 1880, and her relationship as daughter and her age as 40 and born in Virginia, indicating a date of birth in about 1840.

The complaint of Wright v. Wright in Amherst County, Virginia Chancery Court, no file number, also identified Mary Ann (Wright) Casey as a daughter of Robert D. Wright:

". . . said Robert D. Wright who died intestate and leaving as his heirs at law your orator, Danl S. Wright, Robert D. Wright, Mary Ann Wright who is now Mary Ann Casey and Cynthia A. Wright who is now Cynthia A. Linthicum"

i. Eliza J. Casey Or Kersey Or Cary

The 1880 Census for Amherst County, Virginia, listed Eliza Cary in the Ellen Wright household on June 3, 1880, and her relationship as daughter, although this should be listed as granddaughter, and her age as 23 and born in Virginia, indicating a date of birth in about 1857.

ii. Wesley Casey Or Kersey Or Cary

Wesley Casey or Kersey or Cary was a son of Mary Ann (Wright) Casey or Kersey and Edward H. Casey or Kersey. (Robert¹, Charles², 1873 Robert D.³, Mary Ann⁴)

The 1870 Census for Amherst County, Virginia, listed Wesley Kersey in the Robert D. C. Wright household on June 30, 1870, and his age as 14 and born in Virginia, indicating a date of birth in about 1856, and also listed Mary Kersey, age 34.

listed as grandson, and his age as 21 and born in Virginia, indicating a date of birth in about 1859.

g. Robert Doss Wright, His Wives Margaret A. (Mason) Wright
And Sarah Courtland (Poindexter) Wright, And His

Robert Doss Wright was a son of 1873 Robert D. Wright of Amherst County and his wife Eleanor or Ellen T. (Hood) Wright. (Robert¹, Charles², 1873 Robert D.³)

The marriage record of Robert D. Wright and Margaret A. Mason was dated on January 5, 1858, at Campbell County, Virginia, and listed the following information for the parties:

"To the Clerk of the County Court of Campbell County in the State of Virginia.

Given under my hand as a Minister of the M.E. Church, South (legally authorized to solemnize Marriages,) this fifth day of January A.D. 1858

The death record of Martha Wright, daughter of Mason and consort of George Wright, was dated in January 1858 at Amherst County, Virginia:

"Place of Death:	Amherst County, Virginia
Line Number:	24
Name of Deceased:	Martha Wright
Race:	White
Sex:	Female
Age:	21
Date of Death:	January (Day Not Stated), 1858
Place:	Amherst County, Virginia
Cause of Death:	Consumption
Name of Parents:	Mason
Birthplace of Deceased:	Amherst

Name of Informant:	T. W. Jones
Relation of Informant:	Not Stated
Commissioner of the Revenue:	T. A. Brown
Date Record Filed:	Between 1858 and 1896"

The informant on this death record or the clerk appear to have confused their information. The marriage record of Margaret A. (Mason) Wright listed her father as George W. Mason and that is consistent with the listing of the parents as Mason in this record. Her husband was Robert Doss Wright, but the informant appears to have confused her father's first name with her husband's last name. And finally, the decedent is listed as Martha, rather than Margaret. Notwithstanding these confusing errors, this is probably the death record of Margaret A. (Mason) Wright.

The 1860 Census for Amherst County, Virginia, listed Robert D. Wright in the James M. Spiller household:

This record indicates that Robert Doss Wright was born in about 1835. This record is consistent with the death record of Martha/Margaret Wright listed above.

The marriage record of Robert Doss(?) or Dades(?) Wright and Sarah Courtland Poindexter was dated on April 21, 1870, at Nelson County, Virginia, and listed the following information for the parties:

Minister's Return Of Marriage

I Certify, that on the 21st day of April, 1870 at Mrs. Ann Poindexters, I united in marriage the above named and described parties, under authority of the annexed License.

J. C. Richardson"

The information is partly inconsistent with the other information known for Robert Doss Wright, but this is nevertheless probably Robert Doss Wright. The year of birth is 10 years off, but subtracting the age in months and days makes the date of birth almost exactly June 2, as in the Bible record. And while this Robert Wright is described as single, the very short marriage to Margaret A. (Mason) Wright was probably treated by Robert Doss Wright as no marriage and thus his description of himself as single.

The 1870 Census for Nelson County, Virginia, listed Robert Wright with the following household:

Name	Age	Sex	Color	Occupation	Value of Real Estate
Robert Wright	26	M	W	Farm laborer
Cora Wright	20	F	W	Keeping house

Cannot Write	Deaf Dumb Blind Insane or Idiot	Male Citizen Over 21	Male Citizen Over 21 Without Right to Vote

This was probably Robert Doss Wright and the census taker may have miswritten Sarah Courtland (Poindexter) Wright as Cora Wright.

The complaint of Wright v. Wright in Amherst County, Virginia, Chancery Court, no file number, also identified Robert D. Wright as a son of Robert D. Wright:

". . . said Robert D. Wright who died intestate and leaving as his heirs at law your orator, Danl S. Wright, Robert D. Wright, Mary Ann Wright who is now Mary Ann Casey and Cynthia A. Wright who is now Cynthia A. Linthicum"

This record indicates that Ernest V. Wright was born in about March 1888.

h. William Poncel Wright

William Poncel Wright was a son of 1873 Robert D. Wright of Amherst County and Eleanor or Ellen T. (Hood) Wright. (Robert¹, Charles², 1873 Robert D.³)

The Family Bible of Robert D. Wright included in Pension File WC 11583 listed the date of birth of William Poncel Wright on May 9, 1840:

". . . . Robt D Wright was Bourn march 16th 1795
Eleanor T. hood his wife was Bourn June 11th 1800 and was married november the 9 1820

The 1860 Census for Amherst County, Virginia, listed William Wright in the Robert D. Wright household and his age as 21 and born in Virginia, indicating a date of birth in about 1839, and his occupation as laborer.

The 28th Virginia Infantry stated that William P. Wright enlisted as a private on April 21, 1861, in Company F of the 28th Virginia Infantry Regiment, was then 20 years old, a farmer, and resided at Good's Crossing, was wounded in action on June 6, 1862, was wounded in action again on September 17, 1862, at Sharpsburg, was at home until August 1863, was wounded on June 4, 1864, by being shot in the hand, was captured as a prisoner of war on August 28, 1864, was exchanged on October 30, 1864, at Point Lookout, and was present in December 1864. This was probably William Poncel Wright, a son of 1873 Robert D. Wright of Amherst County, but further research will be required to confirm this identification.

"The funeral services of the late Mr. Wood M. Stephens took place at eleven o'clock this morning at the home in Madison, and were conducted by Rev. C. H. Galloway, pastor of the Methodist Church there. The interment was at Mead [sic] Chapel, about two miles from Madison. Among those who attended the funeral were a number of the fellow workmen of the deceased at the Glamorgan Works.

He was a valued employee of the Glamorgan Pipe and Foundry Company, and while engaged in his duties there was caught in the shafting of the machinery and so badly crushed that he died a short while afterwards. No one seemed to know exactly how the accident was caused. Mr. Stephens was occupied with his usual labor, and was devoting energy and attention to what he was doing. In some way his clothing caught on a screw attached to the machinery, and in a moment he was dragged into the whirl of the crushing iron and steel. In less time that it takes to tell of it, the machinery had been stopped and Mr. Stephens released from his perilous position, but it was too late to save him from fearful injury. One of his arms from elbow to hand was terribly bruised, but the principal injury which he sustained was internal. When his companions reached his side he was conscious and able to speak.

Dr. E. A. Waugh was quickly summoned, and on arriving at the works rendered every possible attention to the injured man. Shortly thereafter Mr. Stephens was removed to his home in Madison where he died forty minutes past five o'clock, and the news of his death was everywhere received with deepest regret and sorrow. Those who had known him paused in the rush of life to pay a tribute to his memory; for they knew that he had been a kind and loving husband and father, a true and faithful friend, and an honest and upright man. In the Glamorgan Works he was held in the highest esteem by both his employers and fellow workmen, and there was not one of them who did not feel that his death was a great personal loss. The president of Glamorgan declared that he was one of his best men and that to fill his place would be a difficult matter.

The oldest of Mr. Stephen's children is only fifteen years of age while the youngest is only seventeen months. His wife was Miss Mary E. Wright, of Amherst. Mr. Stephens was born in Pennsylvania, but was reared in Amherst county. Saturday was the thirtieth anniversary of his connection with the Glamorgan.

The pall-bearers were: Messrs. A. J. Bryant, T. L. Williams, Sam Sanderson, Leon Honig, G. W. Smith and W. A. Murray.

The flower bearers were: Messrs. C. A. Taylor, W. E. Wood, Samuel Turner, and H. G. Hudson."
